

HOLINESS MESSENGER

WITHOUT HOLINESS NO MAN SHALL SEE GOD.

VOLUME 56 NO. 2

MARCH - MAY 2011

In the beginning a threefold separation was accomplished before the command was given: “Be fruitful, and multiply.” God separated the light from the darkness, the waters beneath from the waters above the firmament, the sea from the dry land. To show His jealousy for physical order still further, He forbid an Israelite to plow with an ox and an ass under the same yoke (Deut. xxii. 10).

The sowing of a field with mingled seed, and the wearing of a garment mingled of linen and woolen were also strictly forbidden (Lev. xix. 19). To this day an orthodox Jew will not mend a woolen garment with a flaxen thread. One of the preparations made by the Jews for an approaching Passover was to go over the fields and root up plants that had grown from mingled seeds. These prohibitions were intended to cultivate in the mind of the people the sentiment of reverence for the order established in nature by God. Wool and linen come from separate kingdoms in nature, one from the animal, the other from the vegetable, and unmixedness of moral character is clearly foreshadowed.

To wear, in the same robe, the wool of selfishness and the linen of spirituality is contrary to the law of order which prevails in the kingdom of grace as in the kingdom of nature. God is as jealous — nay, more jealous — of moral order than of physical order, and in the management of their cattle, in the cultivation of their fields, in the making and wearing of their clothes, God was whispering in their ear, “Be pure of heart and life.” “What communion hath light with darkness?”

This thought of unmixedness is still further illustrated in the dress of the priests: “When the priests minister in the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; no wool shall come upon them while they minister in the inner court, and within” (Ezek. xlv. 17). To enter “within the veil” and dwell there in the presence of God, there must be a laying aside of all that appertains to the dark world — the world of our selfhood — and we must be clothed with the fine linen, clean and white, which is the righteous acts of the saints and the robing of the Bride of Christ (Rev. xix. 8).

The Unmixed Life

By J. Gregory Mantle

Few will deny that this mixedness in Christian life and work is a great bane, and seriously interferes with the effectiveness of both. This must be so, because it is a subversion of God’s order, and, as we have previously intimated, the creature will not be permitted with impunity to interfere with the laws established by the Creator. This was Paul’s trouble in the Corinthian Church. The Christians were possessed of a regenerate babe-life which Paul calls “carnality.” They lived a kind of suspended life, now dominated by the flesh and now by the Spirit, and the result was an elementary experience, envying, strife, and division (I Cor. iii.). Those who are living this mixed life are spoken of as double-minded (more exactly double-souled) men (James i. 8; iii. 8). There is only one cure for such a condition. It is the converging of all the desires and affections in the same center, viz., the love of God’s will and glory. When this is the case true singleness of heart is experienced. “If thine eye be single, thy whole body

ARTICLES of FAITH

The object for which it is formed is: To preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and promote a better understanding among all brethren.

The Word of God alone shall be the Doctrine, Practice, and Discipline of this Board of Members: it being understood that we receive it as the inspired Word of God and the Divine rule of faith and conduct.

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried and arose on the third day according to the Scriptures, afterwards ascended into heaven where He is now seated at the right hand of God the Father, from whence He is come again to judge the quick and dead.

We believe in Water Baptism and that it should be administered to every believer according to the Scriptures given by St. Matthew 3:17;28:19; St. Mark 16:15; Acts 8:36-38. We teach that the Blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin, and sanctifies the believer, thus making him or her eligible to receive the gift of the Holy Ghost which is given to them that obey (Acts 5:32) and the evidence of such experience shall be according to Acts 2:4.

We believe in the resurrection of the dead and the Communion of the saints, the Lord's Supper and washing the saint's feet. We believe that divine healing for our physical bodies was included in His suffering as mentioned by the prophet Isaiah 53:5. It is still available to all who meet conditions and according to His will (James 5:14).

We believe that all ministers should be of good report (1 Timothy 3:7-12) including Pastors, Evangelists, Deacons and Elders (Titus 1:5-7); and husbands of one wife.

We believe the Church of Jesus Christ to be a living Organism. The Body of Christ, and habitation of God through the Spirit (Ephesians 2:20-22), and that each true believer is a member of the Body (1 Corinthians 12:14; Acts 2:47).

EDITOR'S DESK

"...My tongue is the pen of a ready writer."
Ps. 45:1

Rev. Ralph & Doreen Cox
9737 E. 66th St. Tulsa, OK 74133

The seriousness of a soul being lost for eternity is hard for the human mind to comprehend but it is true nevertheless, God almighty has offered man the solution to the sin problem, Man's refusal to partake of the remedy is shown by the obvious consequences, Look around you and every direction you see nothing but the result of evil. Turn your mind backward and you see by the scripture type that man stubbornly refuses to look at the serpent on the pole. God's remedy for death at the time, (Numbers 21:9

The cure for the world's ills lies in Jesus Christ. All people with any spiritual intelligence know that this is true. Even those that do not possess the Lord in their hearts will have ton confess that He is the only hope for mankind. No thinking person can get around this stupendous truth; the world has to willfully and purposely shut their mind to fact and reason to fail to see this.

No wonder that a leading infidel of his time said, "If Jesus Christ were alive today I would pay Him homage." Now consider the import of that statement and the basis of it and you'll see that he saw Jesus through a historical and a scriptural fact. These two are enough to save the world if man would only forsake his present sin... Give up! Is the way out of this dilemma? Surrender is the way out of defeat. You win by defeat.

God's ways are so wholly different from man's that man wants to fight back, or at least assist God by some fruitless method, in the end he comes out fighting against God, Whole nations have been destroyed on this principle of refusing to let Christ be their Savior. Man has tried a lot of things since Calvary, but God had held out nothing else by His own Son.

A German SS officer was brought from the battlefield badly in need of a blood transfusion. He was told by the English medical doctors that he would have to have blood or death would result, He said, "Is it English blood?" "Yes", the replied, "it is English blood." "I won't take it!" He died shortly, all because of a stubborn, prejudiced hate for his fellowman. That blood could have been life giving for us.

The Jews of Jesus' time would not come to Him. All because of stubborn, prejudiced mind and a hard heart is what is damning the world.

Some programs have helped mankind but in spite of all of them the world is still wicked and every kind of wickedness is increasing, Would you believe that grown men with college degrees and years of lawmaking experience, can't seem to make and enforce laws that will stop pornography, and worse child pornography. And to think men who went to school will debate on how to, or whether to stop its distribution and publication, It's a wonder they don't make a law forbidding the killing of poisonous snakes and sewer rats.

Please note the address Change to Bill Parks. 2110 S. 280th E. Ave., Catoosa, OK 74015.

The address for the Holiness Messenger is the same: PO Box 472202, Tulsa, OK 74147

Some evil can be curtailed by jail and a fine and confine. God has laws and failure to enforce them has caused a more sinful world, everything in the Bible makes perfect sense. And every Christian should hate sin in whatever form it comes.

The devil works on any scale and the Christian should be aware of this. The average thought concerning evil is only the evil nearest us and true it is that we should see that, yet be sure that there is more and much more than this. There is always a hidden hand. The cloven hoof and Satan's print may be faintly seen but it is there and much deeper than meets the eye.

The devil works from the lowest hippie pad to the highest echelon of world politics. A dirty mind id just as vile in a clean suit in a costly apartment as it is in a dope-crazed hippie's cellar, the worms ate Herod because of no respect for God and royal apparel couldn't prevent it. (Acts 12: 21-23) The King and the beggar must both meet God and give an account for the deeds done in this body. It is the church's place to help them prepare for that day.

God Bless, Ralph Cox

✍️ Points To Ponder ✍️

I remember reading of a blind man who was found sitting at the corner of a street in a great city with a lantern beside him. Some one went up to him and asked what he had the lantern there for, seeing that he was blind, and the light was the same to him as the darkness. The blind man replied—

“I have it so that no one may stumble over me.”

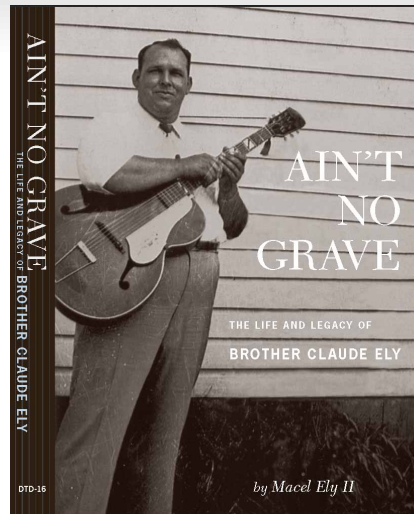

Dear friends, let us think of that. Where one man reads the Bible, a hundred read you and me. That is what Paul meant when he said we were to be “living epistles of Christ, known and read of all men.” I would not give much for all that can be done by sermons, if we do not preach Christ by our lives. If we do not commend the Gospel to people by our holy walk and conversation, we shall not win them to Christ.

Your Walk Tells... “That man must have been in the army, or in a military school,” I said to a friend once.

“Yes,” he said; “how did you know?”

“By the way he walks.”

You can tell that some people have been with Jesus by their walk.

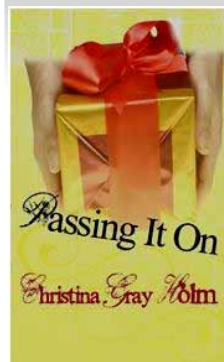

“Ain’t No Grave,” a new book by author Macel Ely II, is a gripping and compelling true-life story of inspiration about the life and legacy of Brother Claude Ely.

The author based his project upon oral history ascertained from more than 1,000 personal interviews with musical artists, ministers and Appalachian residents who remember the singer/preacher and his impact upon the lives of countless mountain people.

Bro. Ralph Cox as well as other Holiness Men are interviewed for this book. The books contains 290 photographs of many of the Holiness Patriarchs.

To order a First Edition Copy of the “Ain’t No Grave” Project (Book and CD) go to www.AintNoGrave.com (Accepting PayPal, Visa, MasterCard, American Express) Cost is $35 (plus $5 for shipping/handling) for the hardback book and CD. Passing It On is the autobiography of Christina Gray Holm. Although targeted for an audience of single youth, it will be appreciated by any age group, whether married or single. The price of the book is $12 which does not include shipping.

I knew I would enjoy the finished work, however, I wasn't expecting the inspiration I felt as I read her writings. -Sister Shirley Lester

To me, Passing It On reads like a fairy tale. Would it be sacrilegious if I called it the story of Cinderella of the Holiness movement? -Pastor Charles Barnett

Psalms 22:1-5

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season, and am not silent.

But thou art Holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel. Our Fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. They cried unto thee and were delivered: they trusted in thee and were not confounded

I would like to talk to you in this article about the God of our Fathers! Speaking in the natural sense of things I have an earthly Father and because he is my dad there are certain characteristics that me and him have in common. We share some of the same personality traits, some of the same likes and dislikes. He gave me life so he reserves the right to be called Father!

As I make mention of me and my earthly father so it is with mine and your Heavenly Father. If you are truly born again and are a child of God then he also has reserved the right to be called Father. Of the many things passed down to me by my earthly father, a personal relationship with Christ was not one of them. Now I'm sure our parents if they could would pass down to us their salvation, but we all know that is not possible. Now I'm sure that many of you could agree with me that we can attribute lot of our Christian experiences to what have seen God do time and time again for our families. Young folks we have seen God turn things around on countless occasions when it seemed as though all had been lost. Knowing what God has done for others has helped to preserve many saints!

In looking at the Old Testament Christ is often referred to as the Lord of, or the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob Now these men were great men of faith that are to be greatly admired! They were and still are known as the "Pillars of the faith" or the "Fathers of the Church". God moved in great and mighty ways on their behalf and on behalf of the church! He did so because they were faithful. One thing we must really set our hearts to learn in this generation is faithfulness! Not to a religion, not to an organization, but rather to Christ!

Now getting back to our text we find David in a strange place. It is agreed that he was probably in the same lace where Jacob was when he wrestled with the Angel. At this place in his life he remembers back to the deliverance God granted unto Jacob! Now I understand that we can't always go forward by holding on to the past but there are times when past experiences become grounds for trust. Speaking of the saints of old... They trusted in Him, they cried to Him, they prayed to Him, they confided in Him. He was their God and all of their confidence was in Him! Due to their faithfulness to God He always moved for them in their time of need. Knowing that He moved for them is an assurance that He can and will do it again! In order for us to experience the same move of God we must live like they lived. They were Holy men, they were dedicated, they were pure, and they were separated. We can't expect God to bless us when were trying to intermingle with the world! The Fathers of our church have put a lot of blood , sweat, and tears into what we as a younger generation enjoy! Truly men and women have given their lives so we may freely enjoy and bask in the presence of God. There is a generation before us that is worthy of our respect. These men did what they did and do what they do to preserve the Faith for generations to come.

If we are not careful we will allow ourselves to swept away by the new trends that are sweeping through churches across America. Proverbs 22:28 - "Remove not the ancient landmarks, which thy fathers have set." Friend please don't exhaust yourself trying to tea down what so many people have died trying to preserve! Now new dogmas, No new rites, No new ceremonies!!! Let's do what our Fathers did and see what our Fathers saw! These men have set these landmarks for a reason. They are guard rails so to speak to keep us from going over the edge.

Jeremiah 6:16 - " Stand ye in the ways, and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said we will not walk therein." There is a good way, but there is among us a group of young people that refuse to walk in it. Friend be not dismayed and fret not there are more that desire to walk in that way then there are that are seeking to destroy it!!! If this really is the right way why would one seek to remove it? Even the heathen religions of the world have landmarks that they hold dear to. Let us hold true to ours and never let them go!

Hey we need a revival that is sanctioned by the God of our Fathers. They trusted and were delivered! They prayed and God answered! They fasted and God honored it! Those men and women hid themselves behind the cross of Jesus. This generation should spend a little less time exposing itself all over the internet and a little more time hiding itself in Christ! May we in these last days as young people go back to the old landmarks that have been the life source of the Church fall on our knees and return to the God of our Fathers!

Before we can live the unmixed life, and belong no longer to the carnal but to the spiritual Christians, we must be willing to know the extent of the mixedness in our own character, for what the eye does not see the heart will not grieve over. Before we invite God to search us, let us pause and ask whether we are willing that He should make a thorough work of this self-discovery, however painful and humbling it may be. If not, we had better not begin; for it is better to be without the light than to possess it and be disobedient. For obvious reasons no knowledge is so neglected as knowledge of ourselves. True self-discovery wounds our pride, and spoils the good opinion we had formed and cherished of ourselves. We may be skilled in every other science and ignorant in this. We may be able to calculate the motions of the heavenly bodies, and know nothing of the movements of our own sinful nature. We may be able to plant our foot on a mountain summit where no human foot has ever before trod, and yet be ignorant of the dimensions of the black mountain of evil in our heart. We may be able by chemical analysis to detect and decompose the material substances around us, and yet never analyze the motives by which we are influenced, and which color and stain all our conduct.

“Self-love conspires with trust in our own hearts to make dupes of us as regards our spiritual account. Proverbially, and in the verdict of all experience, love is blind; and if love be blind, self-love being the strongest, the most subtle, the most changeless, the most difficult to eradicate of all loves, is blinder still. Self-love will not see, as self-trust cannot see, anything against us.” It is this ignorance that leads to quiescence. The hateful foe assumes such disguises, and appears so exactly the opposite of what he really is, that we lose sight of the fact that he is a devil still, and that, as Luther was wont to say, the white devil is more to be dreaded than the black.

What is necessary then, since self-love will cause us to live in such a fool’s paradise if we follow its interested opinion, is the search-light of God. This, and this alone, will disturb our self-complacency and self-deception. “Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see” (Rev. iii. 17, 18, R.V.).

LIGHT from the WORD

HUMILITY.... Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. (1 Peter 5:5)

Humility is the quality of being modest, reverential, even politely submissive, and never being arrogant, contemptuous, rude. Humility is an essential attitude in our relationship between God and our fellow man. Most division in the church is because of a lack of humility

The Oxford English Dictionary states that humility comes from the Latin word "humilis," meaning low, which, in turn, comes from the Latin "humus," which means earth or dirt or soil. This is where our saying comes from When say that someone is "down to earth." We mean by that they do are not proud and conceited.

It is a state of mind well pleasing to God (1 Pet. 3:4); it preserves the soul in tranquillity (Ps. 69:32, 33), and makes us patient under trials (Job 1:22). Christ has set us an example of humility (Phil. 2:6-8). We should be led thereto by a remembrance of our sins (Lam. 3:39), and by the thought that it is the way to honour (Prov. 16:18), and that the greatest promises are made to the humble (Ps. 147:6; Isa. 57:15; 66:2; 1 Pet. 5:5). It is a “great paradox in Christianity that it makes humility the avenue to glory.”

A man can counterfeit love, he can counterfeit faith, he can counterfeit hope and all the other graces, but it is very difficult to counterfeit humility. You soon detect mock humility. They have a saying in the East among the Arabs, that as the tares and the wheat grow they show which God has blessed. The ears that God has blessed bow their heads and acknowledge every grain, and the more fruitful they are the lower their heads are bowed. The tares which God has sent as a curse, lift up their heads erect, high above the wheat, but they are only fruitful of evil.

A newspaper once told the story of a petition that was being circulated for signatures. It was a time of great excitement, and this petition was intended to have great influence in the House of Lords; but there was one word left out. Instead of reading, “We humbly beseech thee,” it read, “We beseech thee.” So it was ruled out. My friends, if we want to make an appeal to the God of heaven, we must humble ourselves; and if we do humble ourselves before the Lord, we shall not be disappointed.
